Comments: PreK: Purposeful planning not evident through documentation displayed in the learning environment. A variety of documentation to be displayed within the environment. Examples of types of documentation to include, but are not limited to photos series, children's words, observations, learning stories, questions, webs, open-ended art pieces, and children's portfolios.

General Comments
Monitoring Inspection - PreK Program only: Children and educators engaged in a variety of activities this morning including sensory opportunities, stories, songs, dramatic play and outdoor play. A small group of children were observed exploring shredded paper and creating a "snowstorm". An educator and support worker were observed down at the children's level showing the children how to handle the class bunny with care. Educators observed encouraging the children to clean-up independently. The learning environment is set-up with a variety of invitations throughout the interest centers. Materials have been added the support the children's current interests (construction, grocery store, letters, shopping). Monthly fire drills are documented. Fresh vegetables, cheese and crackers were served for morning snack. New staff file (1) review was completed, all required documents in place.
