General Comments
Initial monitoring inspection was performed on this date. Children were eating lunch upon arrival of licensing staff, supervision and proper ratio was maintained at all times throughout the inspection.
Emergency care plan for child with medical needs was reviewed with licensing staff and educators displayed confidence and in-depth understanding of how to implement this plan. All staff should review this plan and it should be updated as the needs of the child change and evolve over time.
Staff and children files were in order will all required documentation included.
