General Comments

When I arrived, the children were on a walk and returned home for the inspection. The children had lunch at 11:00 am.

The children know the routine well and are being taught independence. When they came in from outside, they all put their shoes and hat in their assigned space.

The playroom downstairs is clean and well organized. The children have quality materials available to them. Large foam mats were added since my last inspection, the children were enjoying the use of them, climbing and running through the tunnel.

The children seem very happy in their Early Learning Childcare Home. There was a lot of laughs and smiles throughout my inspection.

Positive child guidance was heard such as positive reinforcement and encouragements. Sarah was engaged with the children and attentive to their needs. She speaks to them in a gentle and respectful manner.

Programming is planned and documented. There are children's art in the wall.

The backyard has many toys for the children, including different surfaces such as grass, pea gravel and also the deck area.

I recommend for renewal.
