General Comments Upon arrival of licensing staff, the children were settling down for snack. The operator helped the children with their snacks and ensured water was available to them. After snack, the operator cleaned up and set out a new Play Doh set. The operator changed the children's diapers. The operator then sat down with the children to play with the Play Doh. The operator was pointing out and vocalizing the various colours and shapes that the children were using. The children and operator then started cleaning up the Play Doh. The operator was heard thanking the children as they helped. The children and operator went to the playroom where they listened to music and danced together. The children were observed smiling. The children played with ride-on planes, music instruments, and in the play kitchen. It was then time to go for their walk. The children and operator cleaned up some toys and started getting dressed. The operator helped the children get ready and they transitioned outside. The operator took out a wagon for the children to sit in and held hands with another. After a short walk they returned to the home. The children washed their hands and got settled for lunch. The operator helped prepare the lunches and helped the children. After lunch, they got cleaned up and the operator changed diapers. The children wanted to help the operator clean and sweep the floor. The operator speaks kindly to the children and is attentive to them. Various pictures of the children are posted on the walls, and the children were observed looking and pointing at themselves and their friends. Various resources and materials are accessible to the children. Positive child guidance was observed.
