General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection occurred this afternoon.
Children and educators were observed washing hands for snack and sitting at tables to eat snack upon arrival.
After snack, the children engaged in indoor tabletop games, dressing up in costumes, exploring slime and homemade play doh, which were presented to the children as a planned activity by educator.
The educator used positive child guidance in all interactions with the children and offered an additional art activity, where the children were invited to participate in a creative open-ended experience with glue, string and wax paper.
Handwashing routine was observed during snack time/arrival routine.
