General Comments

Monitoring Inspection:

Children and educators observed during transition from outdoor play to lunch and nap time. The infants were observed exploring their indoor play environment freely as they waited for lunch to arrive. Educators were observed down at their level engaging in meaningful conversations and play. The children in the Junior Pre-K Room were observed during lunch; educators joined in meaningful conversations with the children as they ate. The children in Pre-K Room were observed exploring a variety of purposefully planned invitations. A small group were reading with their educator, and another small group were creating an art project with their educator.

Nap time was observed today. The environments are dim, and educators put soft music on to ensure the environment is relaxing for children. The children's cots are set-up with bedding and are situated at an adequate distance apart. Educators observed comforting children as they settle in for nap.

Handwashing routines were observed after outdoor play, during washroom routines and before mealtimes.
Diaper changing procedures were observed to be followed.
Chicken noodle soup with bread and butter were served for lunch. Crackers with cream cheese were served for afternoon snack.
Monthly fire drills are documented.
Daily attendance records are accurate and reflect all children present. Child-to-staff ratio was observed to be met during Monitoring Inspection. Infant Daily Information sheets observed to be completed throughout the day.
Facility is currently meeting the 50% trained Early Childhood Educators (8/12) requirement.
