General Comments
The children are offered snack when they arrive after school. Today was muffins and bananas, as noted on the posted menu. Additional resources have been added to the space and now includes a corner book area with a bookshelf, rug and several bean bag chairs. The books are regularly rotated to meet children's interests and seasonal events. A corner and large table are set up with art materials, writing utensils, paper and an easel. Large colored mats are located in front of the windows with shelves holding links, imaginative play resources, and transportation items. Some shelves located throughout the room hold puzzles, board games, and additional play items. A smart board is located in the space for dance videos. There are natural elements provided on shelves such as plants, rocks, pumpkins, and gourds. The science shelf has science elements and an information book. The children each have a peg and basket with their names located outside the classroom. The parent board is located above the pegs with required information. Please update the Quality Assurance Monitor's phone number to 506-261-1886. The children enjoyed play throughout the classroom with the educators engaging with different groups of children at various times. Educators helped children problem solve when disagreements arose. The children went outside at 4 pm and are usually picked up from the playground. The educators brought resources outside for children to play however, they enjoyed playing on the play structure and chasing one another in games.
